Significant Issues

The Fort Sill reservation contains approximately 94,221 acres of land. Some of this land serves as habitat for protected species of wildlife. Of the areas within the installation that have been surveyed to date for cultural resource properties, 832 properties have been identified and recorded. Nearly all of the current and proposed RPMP projects and sited within the 6,015 acre cantonment area, where the majority of the installation historic buildings are located.

Draft Environmental Impact Statement/Report for Norco Bluffs Bank Stabilization Measures, Norco, CA

AGENCY: U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Los Angeles District, DoD.

ACTION: Notice of availability.

SUMMARY: The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and the Riverside County Flood Control and Water Conservation District propose to stabilize the Norco Bluffs banks which are located along the Santa Ana River in the City of Norco, California. The toe of the bluffs has undergone substantial erosion resulting in the collapse of sections of the bluff and the endangerment of approximately 56 structure, roadways, and utilities along the bluff. Two alternatives are under consideration. The National Economic Development Alternative is the construction of an earthen toe protection structure with soil cement erosion protection. The Locally Preferred Plan is the preferred alternative, and consists of toe protection with stabilization of the bluff slope using buttress fill.
